

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

NORTON GARDENS

HYATTSVILLE, MD.

Dahlia

The following new originations of our gardens, selected for artistic form and unusual color combinations or novel characteristics are offered in 1926 at prices named per single root. The numbers before each name are our ratings as compared with valuation of 93 for the best decoratives; singles as compared with the best singles would rate much higher than here listed.

77.	Amber Bouquet, amber single	$0.50
75.	Duplila, lilac duplex45
82.	Stapelia, maroon peony60
78.	Red Bowl, rose red, bowl-form sin.25
79.	Dark Valley, dark crimson single, tipped rose50
80.	Coming Day, hermosa pink duplex, tall, free, very attractive garden variety30
77.	Muscaria, purple duplex30
83.	Many Fires, brilliant red duplex, more flowers at once than any other dahlia we have seen50
76.	Maroon Star, maroon single, delicate wiry stems, new flower form30
86.	Desert Gold, very full, large golden amber decorative	5.00

